Your Therapist Is Also A Key Worker

Our team members at Plumtree have training in therapy, education, psychology and positive behaviour support. They have also completed accredited Key Worker training. This means that they can easily switch roles from being your therapist to being your Key Worker.

This can save time and money but above all, supports a high quality service.

The Key Worker approach results in greater family empowerment and well being. This leads to better outcomes for your child.

V2.2_5/3/20