Dear Sylvana,

It is with great pleasure that I write to tell you that you have been nominated for the Centre for Disability Studies Excellence in Education and Training Award as part of the Trevor Parmenter Awards and your nomination has been successful.

You were nominated by Ray Murray and the peer testimonials were provided by Trisha Bengel from McKenzie Centre, New Zealand, and Nicole Buffoni, a family peer facilitator, Now and Next program.

The Award ceremony will be on Monday 25 November 2019 in The Auditorium, Ground Floor, Medical Foundation Building, 92-94 Parramatta Road, Camperdown 2050.

The Awards follow CDS' Annual General Meeting which begins at 4.30pm with the award ceremony to start at 6.45pm. For the full program of the evening, please visit our website <https://cgs.org.au/event/cgs-annual-general-meeting-and-trevor-parmenter-lecture-and-awards/>

I would really appreciate if you can let me know if you can attend. If not, would you like to arrange for a video acceptance and nominate someone to receive this award on your behalf. Please feel free to invite any guests you would like to attend the Award ceremony with you as well.

Congratulations on achieving the CDS Excellence in Education and Training Award.

Sincerely,

Patricia O'Brien
Professor of Disability Studies
